

In the Court of Appeals of the State of Alaska

Randolph Williams,
Appellant,

v.

State of Alaska,
Appellee.

Court of Appeals No. A-13753

Order

Date of Order: 4/2/2021

Trial Court Case No. 1HA-12-00071CR

Because the appeals in A-13753 and A-13784 both involve Randolph Williams, and arise from the same underlying superior court case, this Court requested the parties to show cause as to why these cases should not be consolidated for consideration and decision and, in part, briefing (the Appellant's sentencing memorandum has already been filed in A-13753).

The parties have responded, and they disagree on consolidating the cases. Based on the Public Defender Agency's explanation, the Court concludes that the cases will not be consolidated.

Because the State's sentencing memorandum in Case No. A-13735 is currently due, the State has requested a filing extension of 200 days under Standing Order No. 12. That request is GRANTED. The State's sentencing memorandum is now due on or before 9/25/2021.
